NEIGHBOURHOOD PLANNING

1. What is a Neighbourhood Plan?

A Neighbourhood Plan is a land use and action plan prepared for specific areas of the city. A Neighbourhood Plan guides future development and redevelopment. It defines the type and density of land uses for each area, and the manner in which development is to occur. This plan usually contains:

- a land use map, which provides a designation or land use type for each parcel of land;
- policies, which are written explanations of the desired development form; and,
- urban design guidelines, to coordinate design within corridors or areas.

For example, a parcel of land may be designated in the neighbourhood plan as "Attached Housing", namely townhouses. The written policies would identify the preferred density, form and type of housing and vehicular access. Design guidelines might define the common design elements within the block or street section.

Neighbourhood plans have been prepared for over 70 of the 137 neighbourhoods in the City of Hamilton. The first plans date back to the early 1970's. Most of the areas where there is considerable potential for redevelopment have approved Neighbourhood Plans. Plans for neighbourhoods are periodically reviewed and updated.

2. How is a Plan Prepared?

Planning and Development Department staff act as facilitators to the Citizen's Advisory Committee and in conjunction with the staff. The citizen's group prepares the Plan.

Input is also provided by affected departments and agencies. The process for plan preparation is shown in the flowchart. Some of the main steps are:

- Data Collection - staff compile information related to planning issues in the area;*
- Plan Preparation - staff and citizen committee define issues, concerns, draft policies;*
- Circulation - draft plan circulated to departments and revised as needed;*

Public Meeting - proposed plan presented at Planning and Development Committee and public for input;

Approval - plan revised based on input; final plan to Planning Development Committee for approval; and,

Implementation - plan recommendations carried out by other policy changes and actions.

3. How are Residents Involved?

Residents of the neighbourhood and other citizens may comment in a number of ways. They may be selected to sit on the Citizen's Advisory Committee which is responsible for the preparation of the Plan with the assistance of staff. Once the plan is drafted, everyone is invited to attend the public meeting or meetings held to discuss the proposed Plan. These meetings are advertised by means of notices mailed to residents and/or placed in the newspaper. Written comments may also be sent to the Planning and Development Department. Staff are committed to meaningful public input. Hearing comments from residents and the general public, who are knowledgeable about local issues, is important.

4. Are There Different Kinds of Neighbourhood Plans?

Plans for "developed" and "undeveloped"neighbourhoods are done in different ways: etter understanding of the local concerns; and,

In "undeveloped" neighbourhoods, where there are few, if any existing residents to comment on the Plan, it is prepared primarily by staff with comments from the general public.

5. How is a Plan Approved?

A Neighbourhood Plan, is approved by the Planning and Development Committee, and adopted by City Council. It is a guide plan, to be used in evaluating development applications, and is subject to change. Unanticipated proposals may be considered appropriate; therefore, the Plan would have to be amended accordingly.

6. How Do Neighbourhood Plans Relate to Other Planning Tools?

A Neighbourhood Plan is only one of several related planning tools, with others including the Official Plan; Zoning By-law; Subdivision and Site Plan Control

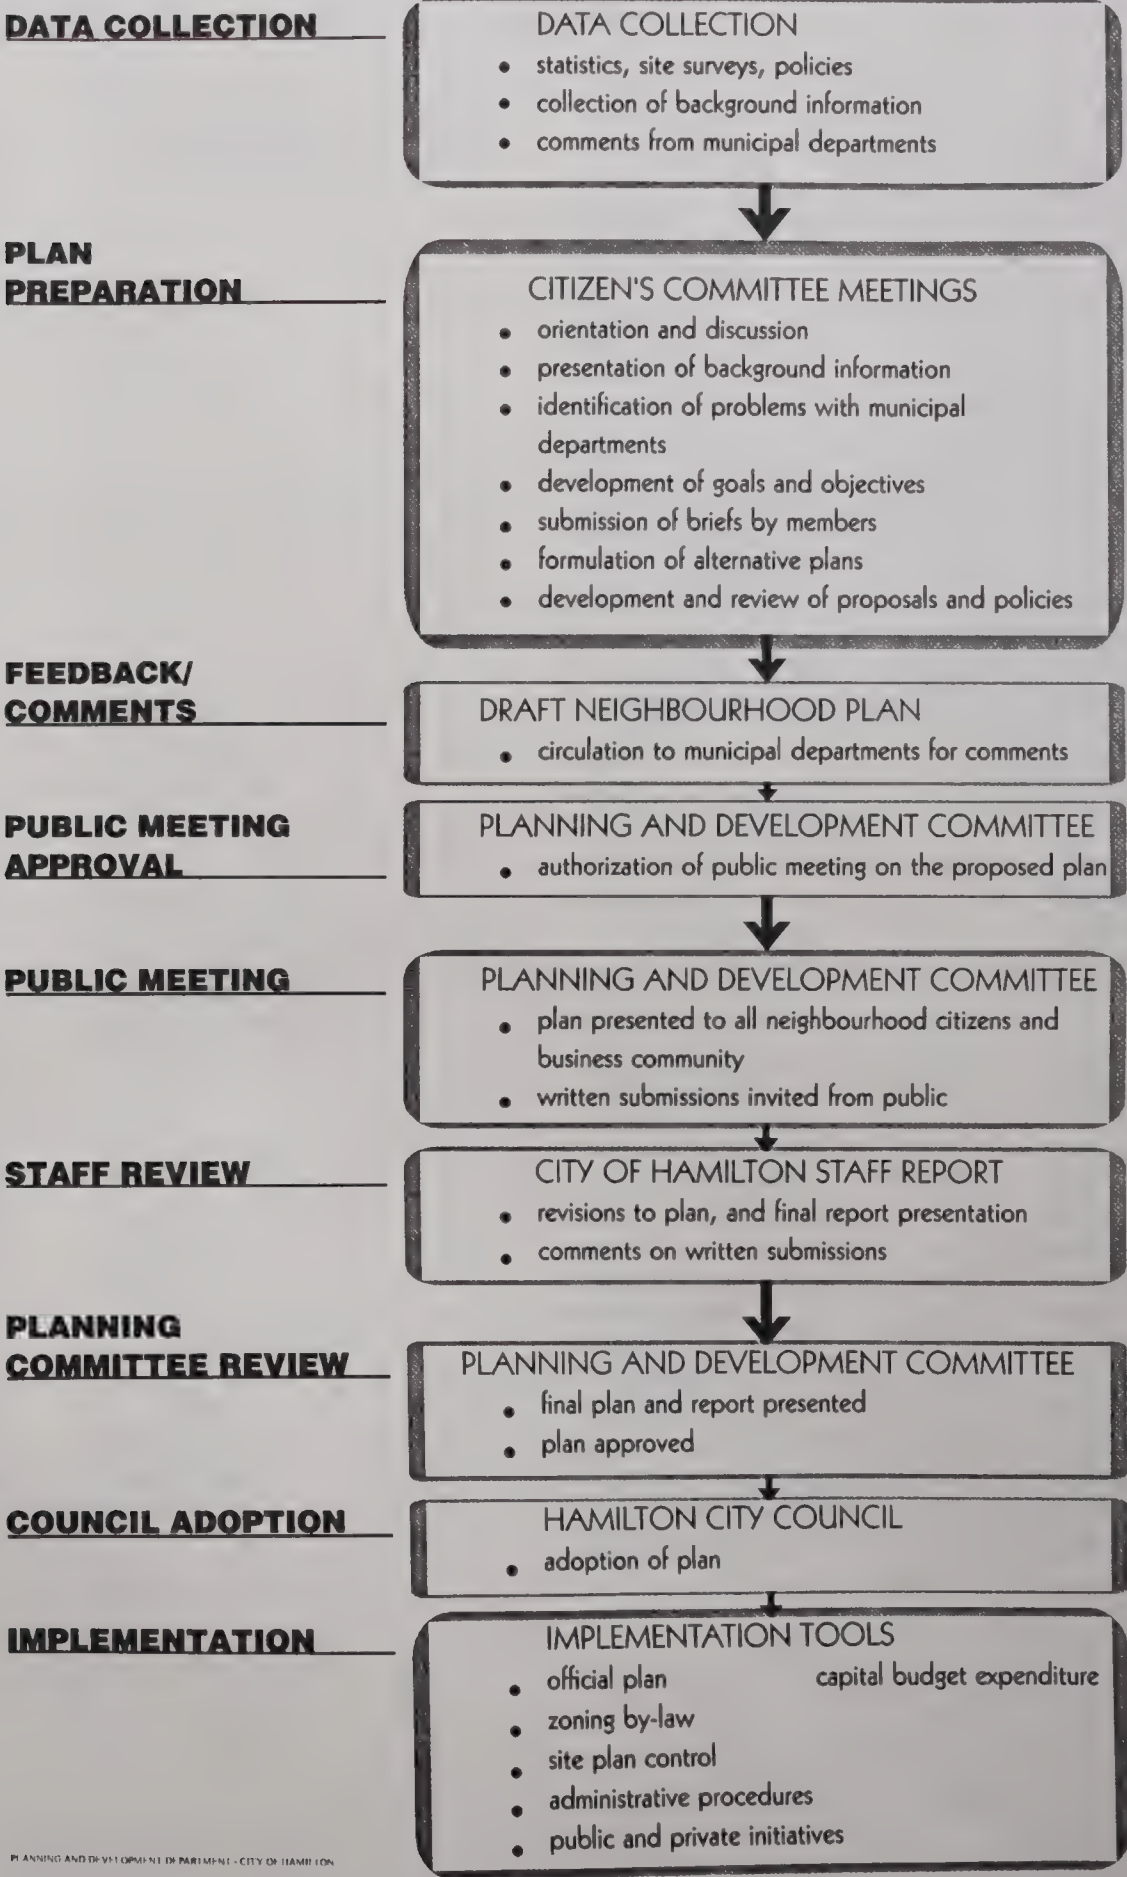

7. Is There a Neighbourhood Plan for my Area?

Contact the Planning and Development Department, at the address or phone number noted below, to find out whether there is a Neighbourhood Plan for the area(s) in which you are interested. Copies of maps and related reports are available from the Department for a nominal cost.

SPECIAL POLICY AREA "A1"

Cannon Street

- the commercial designations on Cannon Street should remain. However, there should be no encroachment into the residentially designated area (to the west and east) nor should there be any extension of the commercial designation to the south side of Cannon Street East
- automotive and related uses along the street could be strengthened through a BIA or similar initiative.

Elgin Street (West Side)

- stacked townhouses of 3 to 5 1/2 storeys in height
- townhouse blocks should provide breaks to allow pedestrian access to the interior of the block.
- the design of the stacked townhouses should reflect that of the existing development on the west side of Elgin Street
- a mix of housing tenure is encouraged

Pedestrian Extension of Robert Street

- a pedestrian link to Ferguson as an extension of Robert Street is appropriate. This requires the establishment of the roadway between Elgin and Robert Streets and its construction east from Ferguson Avenue to the existing alley. The preferred alignment between Elgin and Ferguson is along the existing sewer easement
- stacked townhousing to the mid-block
- appropriate area should be provided to create a quality landscaped area

Barton Street

- mixed commercial/residential uses are recommended. The ground floor level should be used for commercial purposes to reflect the use of Barton Street to the East and West
- height along Barton should be limited to 2 storeys at the street level with residential structures could be set back to a maximum height of 6 storeys in total

Ferguson Avenue

- A maximum height of ten storeys was identified as appropriate around a central focal point on Ferguson (where Ferguson Avenue intersects with the pedestrian extension of Robert Street). All other buildings should be restricted to a maximum of eight storeys
- a mix of housing tenure is encouraged

Canfield Street

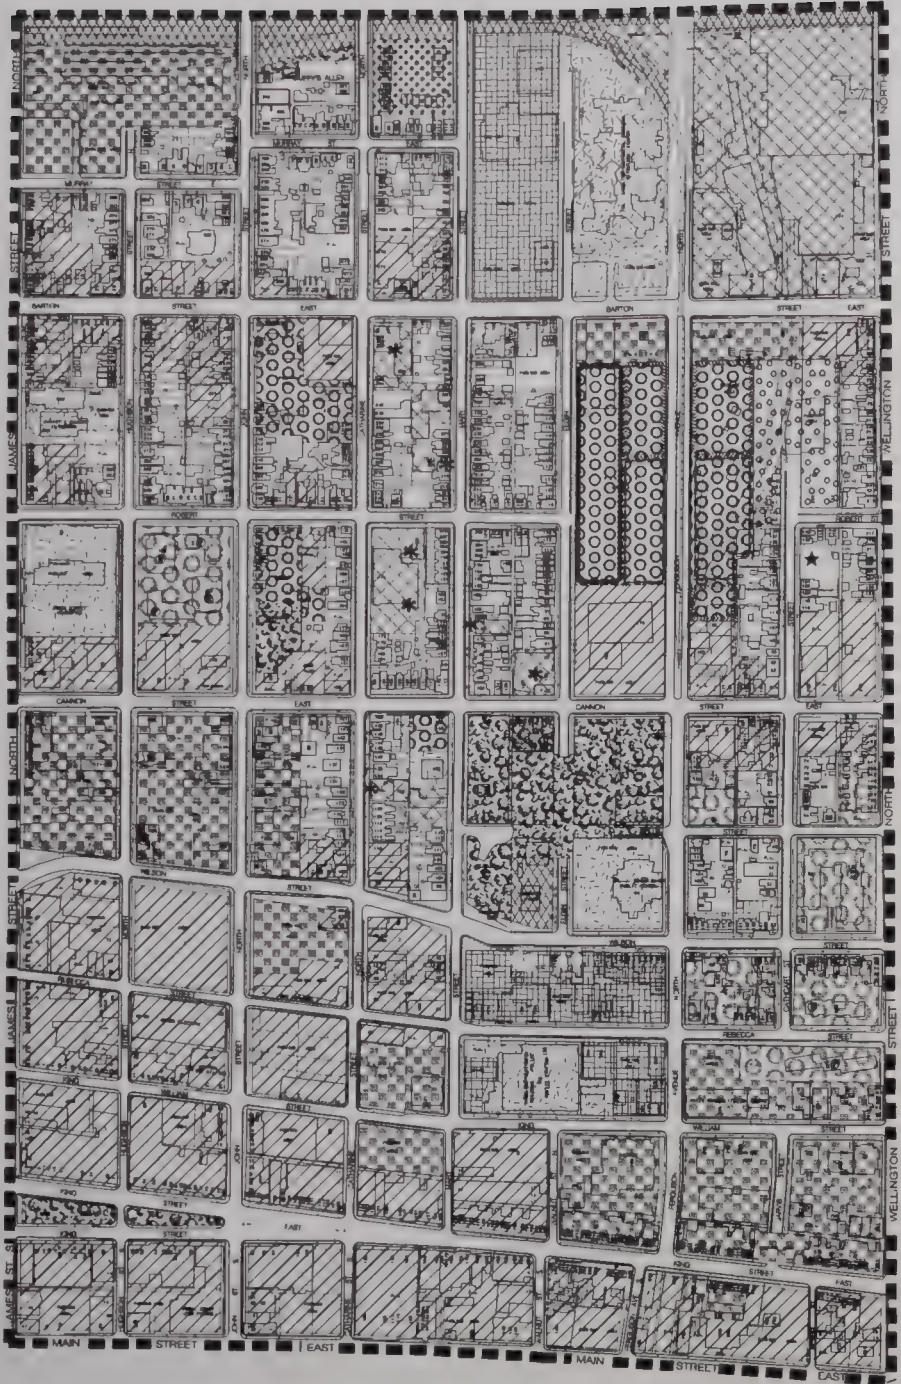

- stacked townhousing should be permitted on the west side of the street
- stacked townhousing or conversion of the existing industrial building to residential use should be permitted

Soil Contamination

- soil studies to identify soil contamination on all sites within this area will be required. In addition, prior to the finalization of every application for development, decommissioning, to the satisfaction of the Ministry of the Environment will be required

Ongoing Stakeholder Consultation

- stakeholders (such as area residents) should continue to be consulted as the development of the area takes place to ensure that their concerns, including the policies and urban design guidelines outlined in the report of the Joint Carter Square Advisory Committee, are addressed. This will aid in the implementation of the amendment

- NOTE .
- Temporary Parking (See Zoning Application 60-72)
 - Future uses on the site may be Industrial, Commercial or Residential in accordance with the Central Area Plan Performance Standards.

NOTE .

ALL LANDS WITHIN THIS NEIGHBOURHOOD ARE SUBJECT TO SITE PLAN CONTROL BY-LAW No. 90-285

Note: This is a GUIDE PLAN only and subject to change. For details contact The City Planning and Development Department.
